

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY AT BLIMP

SOCIAL MEDIA INTERN

Blimp Digital Marketing and PR is looking to take on interns in the field of Social Media!

You will be a young and energetic individual with strong English writing skills and up-to-date on major social media platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and LinkedIn. You will be a keen follower of social media trends.

You will learn how to utilize social media for getting your message across; you will learn how to utilize your writing skills effectively; you will learn how to use tools and applications for managing digital marketing activities; and most importantly, you will learn that work does not have to be boring!

You will learn all this while getting compensated enough to enjoy pizza every week!

You will have a desire to learn all this and will be exploring if you want a career in Digital Marketing. You will be able to dedicate 8 hours a day for 5 days a week to your internship, and preferably be able to do this for 2 months. Of course, you can stay on to hone your skills if you wish.

Blimp is an equal opportunity fun-filled training provider to willing interns!
